

OPEN DAY AT LILIESLEAF

TravelHub (www.travelhub.co.za) - LILIESLEAF in Rivonia, where members of the high command of Umkhonto we Sizwe were arrested, is having an open day on Friday, July 11. This marks the 45th anniversary of the day of the arrest that eventually led to the Rivonia Trial.

Scheduled tours will be conducted by Spear of the Nation at 11h00, 13h00 and 15h00.

Visitors will be allowed to access all areas including the resource centre, museum, liberation path and liberation centre.

Story by: Sue Lewitton

Friday, July 04, 2008

Disclaimer of Liability: With respect to PDF documents available from this service, neither Now Media PTY Ltd nor any of their employees makes any guarantee, express or implied, or assumes any legal liability or responsibility for the accuracy, completeness, or usefulness of any information disclosed in this document.